§ 701.24

immediate family member has not made a referral.

- (3) Business associates and family members. All transactions under this section with business associates or family members not specifically prohibited by paragraph (g)(1) of this section must be conducted at arm's length and in the interest of the federal credit union.
- (4) Definitions. The definitions in $\S701.21(c)(8)(ii)$ of this part apply to this section.
- (h) Additional authority. (1) A federal credit union may submit a written request to its regional director seeking expanded authority to purchase loans described in paragraph (b)(2) of this section, if it is not otherwise authorized by this section. The written request must include the following:
- (i) A copy of the credit union's purchase policy;
- (ii) The types of eligible obligations under paragraph (b)(2) of this section that the credit union seeks to purchase;
- (iii) An explanation of the need for additional authority; and
- (iv) An analysis of the credit union's prior experience with the purchase of eligible obligations.
- (2) Approval process. A regional director will provide a written determination on a request for expanded authority within 60 calendar days after receipt of the request; however, the 60day period will not begin until the requesting credit union has submitted all necessary information to the regional director. The regional director will inform the requesting credit union, in writing, of the date the request was received and of any additional documentation that the regional director requires in support of the request. If the regional director approves the request, the regional director will establish a limit on loan purchases as appropriate and subject to the limitations in this section. If the regional director does not notify the credit union of the action taken on its request within 60 calendar days of the receipt of the request or the receipt of additional requested supporting information, whichever occurs later, the credit union may purchase loans it requested under paragraph (b)(2) of this section.

(3) Appeal to NCUA Board. A federal credit union may appeal any part of the determination made under this paragraph to the NCUA Board by submitting its appeal through the regional director within 30 days of the date of the determination.

§ 701.24 Refund of interest.

- (a) The board of directors of a Federal credit union may authorize an interest refund to members who paid interest to the credit union during any dividend period and who are members of record at the close of business on the last day of such dividend period. Interest refunds may be made for a dividend period only if dividends on share accounts have been declared and paid for that period.
- (b) The amount of interest refund to each member shall be determined as a percentage of the interest paid by the member. Such percentage may vary according to the type of extension of credit and the interest rate charged.
- (c) The board of directors may exclude from an interest refund:
- (1) A particular type of extension of credit:
- (2) Any extension of credit made at a particular interest rate; and
- (3) Any extension of credit that is presently delinquent or has been delinquent within the period for which the refund is being made.
